The International Center of Photography (ICP) is pleased to announce Evidence of Existence: 2026 ICP Recent Graduates Exhibition, bringing together work by the graduating class in over 10 years with 87 graduates from over 30 countries that comprise three of ICP's education programs: the full-time, onsite One-Year Certificate Programs in Creative Practices and Documentary Practice and Visual Journalism and the Teen Academy Imagemakers program. Curated by

Sara Ickow, ICP's Associate Director of Exhibitions, this year's graduates desired to turn our attention toward what is often overlooked or out of reach, while exploring how photography can give form to the unseen. The exhibition is free and open to the public.

The Documentary Practice and Visual Journalism program focuses on the investigative skills and technical knowledge necessary for students to advance in the complex and constantly changing world of visual storytelling. Participants explore the history of visual journalism; develop new and challenging technical skills in still photography and related media; learn strategies for publication; and create long-term documentary projects that examine the human experience. Featuring work by Anabella Dalinger, Celia Wong, Daniel Jimenez Paz, Dillon Montes Edlin, Elisa Pedrani, Gaia Cozijn, Guram Muradov, Hector Ruiz Cardenas, Henry Kuvin, Ida Neerbye, Joude Salman, Kabir Dugal, Mann Brown, María Ruiz, Mariam Rauf, Marija Knezevic, Martha Roschmann, Mathilde Brandi, Miles Henderson, Moira Ball, Nadezda Tavodova Tezgor, Ninette Lau, Noah Bernstein, Paola Gutiérrez Zambrano, Ruo-Jia Liang, Santiago Muñoz, Sara Meneses Cuapio, Simon Fässler, Tatiana Chyeanne Gonzalez, Victoria Dmitrieva, Vi!K, Viola Shanti Fagioli, Yanara Suenaga and Yelyzaveta Doroshenko.

The International Center of Photography (ICP) is the world’s leading institution dedicated to photography and visual culture. Cornell Capa founded ICP in 1974 to champion “concerned photography”—socially and politically minded images that can educate and change the world. Through exhibitions, education programs, community outreach, and public programs, ICP offers an open forum for dialogue about the power of the image. Since its inception, ICP has presented more than 700 exhibitions, provided thousands of classes, and hosted a wide variety of public programs. ICP launched its new integrated center at 84 Ludlow Street on Manhattan’s Lower East Side in January 2020. ICP pays respect to the original stewards of this land, the Lenape people, and other Indigenous communities. Visit icp.org to learn more about the museum and its programs
