Photobook Fest

The International Center of Photography presents the fifth year of Photobook Fest, a weekend-long celebration of the best in photobooks from around the world. This year, we're thrilled to present the largest Photobook Fest to date—welcoming 74 publishers representing 13 countries and 11 states in the U.S., alongside three days of conversations, lectures, hands-on workshops, pop-up installations, reading rooms, and photographers signing their newest publications.

Stop by the ICP Community table to browse the newest selection of photobooks from ICP's talented alumni, students, faculty, and staff; and learn more about joining our community of imagemakers through classes, workshops, or full-year programs, all skill levels and ages welcome.

Share your #ICPPhotobookFest experience—be sure to tag us at @icp on Instagram and @ICPhotog on TikTok throughout the weekend.

About ICP

The International Center of Photography is the world's leading institution dedicated to photography and visual culture. Cornell Capa founded ICP in 1974 to champion "concerned photography"—socially and politically minded images that can educate and change the world. Through exhibitions, education programs, community outreach, membership and public programs, ICP offers an open forum for dialogue about the power of the image.

ICP's Photobook Fest is produced by ICP public programs. Serving more than 8,000 audience members through over 90 events offered annually in person and online. ICP's public programs offer stimulating conversations and a chance to connect. Program series include: the Naomi Rosenblum ICP Talks Photographer Lecture series, Late Night ICP, Cameras & Coffee, Photobook Club, Photobook Fest, and more. Visit icp.org/events to see more or sign up for our weekly email newsletter at icp.org/subscribe.

Open Education

Seeing America through the New York Cityscape

Look to classic photobooks—Robert Frank’s The Americans, Gordon Parks’s American Gothic, Berenice Abbott’s Changing New York—to inspire your own investigations of current American societal struggles as seen through the infrastructure, streetscape, and people of New York City. This immersive Open Education course based on iconic photobooks is open to all skill levels. Receive discounts on Open Education courses with an ICP Membership.

Youth Programs

DIY Photobooks with Anthoula Lelekidis

Join us at ICP in the Lower East Side for this weeklong, in-person program for young people ages 14-19, where they will explore making artist zines! The course will cover storytelling, digital design, and experimental processes, while exploring ICP’s extensive book collection and learning to see your photography in new, exciting ways. Scholarships are available for all youth classes.
