International Center of Photography Announces One-Year Certificate Scholarship Awards

New York, NY (May 31, 2013)—The School of the International Center of Photography (ICP) has announced the 2012-2013 ICP One-Year Certificate Scholarship Award recipients. These students are pursuing certificates in Documentary Photography and Photojournalism or General Studies.

“The high caliber of the work submitted this year for the pool of scholarship opportunities far exceeded our expectations,” said Phillip Block, Deputy Director for Programs and Director of Education, ICP. “We salute their excellence and look forward to their contributions in the future as they enter the community of active and engaged artists and documentarians.”

The One-Year Certificate Programs in Documentary Photography and Photojournalism, led by Chair Alison Morley, and General Studies, led by Chair Marina Berio, provide advanced students with an intensive yearlong course of study that strengthens personal vision, teaches professional practices, and explores the many disciplines that inform media and art today.
